December 2018 @ Nonie Wetzel Courtland Library

Kids Programs

Storytime with Mr. Dave
Every Monday morning at 10 am
For children ages 0-5 and their caregiver

Tween-Teen Programs

Paper Airplanes in the Library!
Wednesday, December 12th, 2 pm
Come in and craft your own paper airplane to take home. What components do you need to create an airplane that will soar across the room?

Adult Programs

South County Services
Every Wednesday afternoon—1-5 pm
South County Services is based out of Galt. They are available to help lower income adults with utilities, rent assistance and food. They are a community based organization offering services to promote employment, health and well being.

English Conversation Club
Every Friday afternoon—5:00-5:45 pm
The English Conversation Club is for adults who wish to strengthen their English language skills. We focus on practical, everyday topics. If you are a non-native speaker who wants to practice your spoken English, then this club is the place for you.

Assemblyman Jim Cooper
Wednesday, December 19, 3 pm—5 pm
Please join us for a Mobile District Office at the library. His staff member can help you work with state agencies and connect you with the numerous resources in our community.

Courtland Friends of the Library
We have expanded our sale area. Come and check it out. Lots of books and DVD's for sale at low prices. All proceeds stay with the Courtland Library.
