Celebrate the centenary of 20th Century Fox Studios with Michael Troyan, author of the studio's newly published first official history: 20th Century Fox - A Century of Entertainment.

He provides a fun program including movie clips and several behind the scenes stories that span from Shirley Temple to Star Wars, Will Rogers to the X-Men, Marilyn Monroe to the Planet of the Apes and The Grapes of Wrath (1940) to Hidden Figures (2016).

Book sales will follow the program.

Book Club

Saturday, February 24th @ 1:30pm

Join us for a discussion of this month's book: “Little Fires Everywhere” by Celeste Ng. In Shaker Heights, a placid, progressive suburb of Cleveland, everything is planned - from the layout of the winding roads, to the colors of the houses, to the successful lives its residents will go on to lead. And no one embodies this spirit more than Elena Richardson, whose guiding principle is playing by the rules. Enter Mia Warren - an enigmatic artist and single mother - who arrives in this idyllic bubble with her teenaged daughter Pearl, and rents a house from the Richardson's. Soon Mia and Pearl become more than tenants: all four Richardson children are drawn to the mother-daughter pair. But Mia carries with her a mysterious past and a disregard for the status quo that threatens to upend this carefully ordered community. When old family friends of the Richardson's attempt to adopt a Chinese-American baby, a custody battle erupts that dramatically divides the town--and puts Mia and Elena on opposing sides. Suspicious of Mia and her motives, Elena is determined to uncover the secrets in Mia's past. But her obsession will come at unexpected and devastating costs. Little Fires Everywhere explores the weight of secrets, the nature of art and identity, and the ferocious pull of motherhood - and the danger of believing that following the rules can avert disaster.

Pick up your copy of the book today. New members are always welcome!
