This program is for students in middle and high school; registration is encouraged.

Read to a Dog

Friday, May 18, 3 p.m.

Come read to some paw-esome pooches! School-age readers are invited to read to furry and friendly canine volunteers and their trainers.

Teens

Youth Art Journaling

Thursday, May 17, 3:15 p.m.

We're calling all middle school and high school students to join our teen facilitated art journaling program! Provided with the generous support of the Friends of the Orangevale Library.

Adults

Job Coach*

May 4 and May 25 at 1 p.m.

Meet one-on-one with a volunteer job coach who will help you look for jobs, navigate on line applications, create an effective resume and more!

Poetry Reading with David Haskell

Tuesday, May 1, 6:30 p.m.

Please come and join poet David Haskell for his second visit to Orangevale as he reads his poems about Railroading and Hobos. David's love of railroads began as a railroad employee and continued as he hitched rides on freight trains.

Mixed Media Art Journaling

Saturday, May 5, 10:30 a.m.

Both inexperienced and lack of talent are welcome! The Friends of the Orangevale Library will provide an art journal and supplies to create a place for creativity to unfold.

Getting To Know You: A Genealogy Program

Saturday, May 12, 2p.m.

Do you need help researching your family history? Volunteers from Root Cellar will help you learn the basics, try new resources, and share discoveries with a group of Time Detectives.

3rd Tuesday Adult Painting—Art Practice*

Tuesday, May 15, 5:30 p.m.

Adults (ages 18+) are invited to practice and explore techniques with acrylic paints or drawing. Space and supplies are limited- Generously funded by the Friends of the Orangevale Library.

3rd Saturday Local Author Visit—World War II: Sacramento with authors Scott, Dewilde and Webb

Saturday, May 19, 1 p.m.

Join us for a fascinating look at WW2 from a local perspective with authors James Scott, Amanda DeWilde and Eric Webb. Exclusive images and stories from the Special Collections of the Sacramento Public Library bring this story to life.
