

Sacramento Public Library HOMEBOUND BOOKS-BY-MAIL

Thank you for your interest in participating in Sacramento Public Library's Homebound Books-by-Mail (HBBM) service. Information about the service:

- This service is offered free of charge to people living within Sacramento County who are physically unable to travel to a Sacramento Public Library facility.
- Applications are reviewed within a week to 10 days of receipt. (NOTE: due to high demand, there may be a waiting period to start the service.)
- The service delivers books and other materials via United States Mail.
- Materials may be kept for up to 30 days.
 - Materials may be renewed three times. Renewals may be done: online through the library website at www.saclibrary.org, by calling the Library renewal phone line at 916-264-2952 or 916-264-2953 or by contacting HBBM at 916-5750-3450.
 - Unreturned materials may result in suspension of service.
- All information on the application and in records is confidential.
 - In order to assure applicants do not receive repeat titles, a list of materials sent is kept.
 - A list of author preferences is maintained.

QUESTIONS? Please call 916-575-3450 and leave a message.
